SECOND JOINT REPORT REGARDING SETTLEMENT DISCUSSIONS

Pursuant to the Order of the Court dated March 7, 2005, counsel for the plaintiffs and defendants have had further discussions regarding mediation and have agreed to attempt mediation as long as it does not delay the litigation. The proviso reflects the assessment that the parties still seem as far apart as before, and pressing the litigation may actually promote understanding and incentives for settlement. Counsel are now discussing possible mediators available through the wireless mediation program established by the industry and the Massachusetts Municipal Association through the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Office of Consumer Affairs. They are also discussing ground rules such as who may be attending a mediation session.
